

Customer Need

Apply Transparent Data Encryption on Oracle production databases of Telecom Operator in terms with GDPR compliance that will come in force on May 2018, which would be the first project in Greece regarding GDPR compliance

Offered Solution

Design and implement Advanced Security Options, for production environments within GDPR frame, along with telecoms DBA team.

Production environments are running on Oracle Database Enterprise Edition 11g and 12c.

Project 1st phase has been completed.

Selected databases have been encrypted and delivered for UAT.

Relevant documentation has been prepared and delivered for the testing phase.

Business Benefit

The operator manage to apply security in depth within the organization, protect personal data information, and be compliant with GDPR.