

Customer Need

The service provider wanted to provide and improve synchronization of its network to facilitate the deployment of new services through technologies like LTE Advance.

Offered Solution

ADAPTIT supplied the turn key project with design, equipment, installation, commissioning and parameterization in a 5-year TCO, to meet these demands assisting the operator to provide new and innovative customer services.

Business Benefit.

Providing uninterrupted and innovative service from the mobile operator through the synch of the network.